

College of Liberal Arts

Degrees Offered 2013-14

Bachelor of Arts

African American Studies	Classics	Liberal Studies	Public Policy Leadership
Anthropology	Computer Science	Linguistics	Religious Studies
Art	Economics	Mathematics	Sociology
Art History	English	Music	Southern Studies
Biochemistry	French	Philosophy	Spanish
Biological Science	German	Physics	Theatre Arts
Chemistry	History	Political Science
Chinese	International Studies	Psychology

Bachelor of Science

Biological Science	Mathematics
Chemistry	Physics
Forensic Chemistry

Bachelor of Music

with emphases in

Music Education Performance

Bachelor of Fine Arts

Art, with emphases in

*Ceramics
Graphic/Web Design
Imaging Arts
Painting
Printmaking
Sculpture*

Theatre Arts, with emphases in

*Acting
Design/Theatre Production
Musical Theatre*

Minors from the College of Liberal Arts Departments

Aerospace Studies	Classics	Japanese	Political Science
African American Studies	Computer Science	Korean	Portuguese
Anthropology	Economics	Linguistics	Psychology
Arabic	English	Mathematics	Public Policy Leadership
Art	French	Military Science	Religious Studies
Art History	German	Music	Russian
Biological Science	History	Naval Science	Sociology
Chemistry	International Studies	Philosophy	Southern Studies
Chinese	Italian	Physics	Spanish
			Theatre Arts

Interdisciplinary Minors

Cinema	Medieval Studies
Environmental Studies	Neuroscience
Gender Studies

Approved Minors Outside of the College

Accountancy	Intelligence & Security Studies
Business Administration	Journalism
Education	Parks & Recreation Management
Engineering

The College also offers students the opportunity to prepare to seek degrees in Clinical Laboratory Science, Cytotechnology, Dental Hygiene, Health Informatics & Information Management, Medical Technology, Nursing, Occupational Therapy, and Radiologic Sciences.

Revised 3/18/13